THE EMERGING CRISIS IN EUROPE

EXPORT EDITION

George Friedman has forecasted the coming trends of the next century in The Next 100 Years, and focused his predictions on the coming ten years in The Next Decade. Now Friedman zooms in on the region that has, for five hundred years, been the cultural hotbed of the world: Europe.

Analyzing the fault lines that have existed for centuries, and which have led to two world wars and dozens more conflicts, Friedman walks us through the "flashpoints" that are still smoldering beneath the surface and are on course to erupt again.
